D.B. CLARKE THEATRE -1455 deMaisonneuve West

Passion, peat, patricide, and all the bare ankles you can stand !-

The Playboy of the Western World has something that will entice everyone.

History, social commentary, romance and comedy collide in this bittersweet love story set in turn of the century Ireland. The "Playboy" of the title is young Christy Mahon, whose transformation from a fearful boy to the village hero awakens the desires of every young woman around - including the soon to be wed Pegeen Mike. The tension mounts when Christy competes in a horserace and is then declared the champion playboy of the Western World. Although this play provoked riots when it first premiered in Dublin, it has since been acclaimed as an Irish treasure.

A special reduced price applies to all Concordia staff, so live a little and bring a friend!

Come for the Playboy! Stay for the Games!

Warning: Irish Accents Will Be Heard During the Performance
